

IN AWE OF AFRICA

ITINERARIES IN THE RAINBOW LAND

HELLO!

Wherever you step on the colorful continent of Africa, you will surely be met by magnificent landscapes and stand in awe of nature. Richard Mullin said, "The only man I envy is the man who has not yet been to Africa - for he has so much to look forward to." While there are truly countless ways to experience the beauty of this land, we'll start with the following four ideas, curated for the adventurer in you.

A CAPE TOWN & BOTSWANA SAFARI

MICATO SAFARIS

If you're going to do a South African safari, be sure to choose one that includes a visit to Cape Town, like the 13-Day Travel + Leisure World's Best Safari from Micato Safaris. You'll taste your way through this cosmopolitan seaside city (it's renown for great food and wine) and catch a glimpse of penguins, your first of many magnificent species. In Kruger National Park's southeast region, you'll see why the Lebombo concession is considered one of the most pristine wild territories in Africa. For a truly memorable moment, you can request a private bush breakfast or sunset cocktail arranged for you in a scenic spot of the reserve. As Travel + Leisure recently said, the Pinto family "run their show as though they were entertaining well-loved, out-of-town relatives."

AN EXOTIC TOUR OF MADAGASCAR

KER & DOWNEY

Madagascar, the third largest island in the world, is a wild and unique place where each region, whether a lush terrain or bustling capital, offers its own distinct allure. Snorkel and swim in pristine water as you discover unmapped beaches. Enjoy a sundowner under the shade of Baobab trees, an icon of the African savannah. Take the long but worthwhile journey to The Big Tsingy, a jaw dropping stone forest of limestone needles. You'll even travel to a tiny speck in the Indian Ocean named Tsarabanjina, where you'll stay in luxurious palm-thatched beach villas. A 14-day Ker & Downey Madagascar itinerary is wonderfully crafted with the experiential traveler in mind and showcases all of the island's untamed and unbelievable bests.

Private Perk: Enjoy a welcome bottle of wine and a spa credit.

BREATHTAKING LODGING IN TANZANIA

SINGITA GRUMETI COLLECTION

Tanzania's Grumeti reserve was created by the Tanzanian government in 1994 in order to protect the path of the annual wildebeest migration and the indigenous biodiversity of this vast and important ecosystem. Singita manages and conserves these 350,000 acres, and speckled across the region, you'll find their eclectic luxury collection: two lodges, two tented camps and a private house. Whether you dream of taking a dip in your verandah swimming pool or "roughing it" in an authentic tent, you'll find distinct options for your personal travel style without sacrificing the luxury of private chefs, gorgeously designed spaces and impeccable service. Pictured above is Sasakwa Lodge, with its spacious veranda and endless view of the majestic Serengeti plains below.

Private Perks: Daily full breakfast, personal gift, complimentary Wi-Fi, and more.
