

ENDS OF THE EARTH

HELLO!

Some destinations are reserved for those with the spirit of raw discovery and wonder. If you are captivated by the idea of trekking to the ends of the earth where few have gone before, the below experiences are for you. We'll help you find trusted travel brands and navigate your experience to make the most of your incredible journey.

THE ETERNAL HIMALAYAS: BHUTAN & NEPAL

EXPLORE: ANDBEYOND BHUTAN

From Paro, Bhutan to Kathmandu, Nepal, you will have the opportunity to explore the grandeur of some of Earth's tallest peaks and the unique, colorful cultures surrounding them. Through guided walks and hikes, you will see temples, stupas (Buddhist shrines), historic monuments and more. On the eighth day of this twelve-day itinerary, you will board a private flight around the monumental Mt. Everest. As you fly above the clouds, you'll witness the endless chain of snow-capped peaks, glaciers and lakes, rivers and gorges... a trip highlight sure to last a lifetime.

VINTGAR GORGE, SLOVENIA

STAY: KEMPINKSI PALACE PORTOROZ

Along the northern border of Slovenia, just at the edge of Triglav National Park, is a scenic walkway along the historic Vintgar Gorge. Here, the mile long Scaffold Trail is considered an engineering masterpiece, winding down between 300 foot canyon walls as it drops to a total of 1,000 feet, ending at an incredible cascade called Sum Falls. Approximately 15 minutes south of the gorge is Lake Bled (pictured above), one of Slovenia's most famous attractions where you can swim in natural pools, kayak, or even take a gondola ride to the castle. If you're looking to diversify your experience, we suggest heading to the stunning Adriatic coastline to stay at Kempinski Palace Portoroz, a short two hour drive away.

EASTER ISLAND, CHILE

STAY: EXPLORA RAPA NUI

With its location in the middle of the Pacific Ocean and home to a culture whose origins and evolution are still largely unknown, Easter Island is an attractive and mysterious destination. A mild year-round climate allows for walking the island's geography and traveling along the coast of numerous ahus (shrines) that are home to centuries old moai. Who, when and why these sculptures were created remains a mystery. Each day of your stay at Explora Rapa Nui, a secluded property set on a tranquil hilltop, choose between five or more explorations that unveil the secrets of the island. You'll never forget your daily picnics on rocky outcrops or along the shore, always in mesmerizing sites.

Private Perks: Complimentary upgrade, daily breakfast, $100 gift card and more.

FIORDLAND NATIONAL PARK, NEW ZEALAND

EXPLORE: NATIONAL GEOGRAPHIC EXPEDITIONS

Milford Sound is a remote fjord on the South Island of New Zealand featuring dramatic views of mountains and misty waterfalls. During the scenic drive from your hotel (which, by the way, overlooks the spectacular Lake Te Anau and Fiordland ranges), you'll learn about the region's flora and fauna before spending the day exploring nature at its best. Enjoy a picnic lunch on the tranquil waters during a boat cruise before descending into an underwater viewing chamber that offers 360-degree views of the marine life, including colorful sea creatures and rare black coral. You'll also visit nearby Queenstown, where you'll stop by a winery on Lake Hayes, at the base of the snowcapped Southern Alps.
